Western Music Association's 2016 Awards of Excellence

The Western Music Association (WMA) Annual Awards Show was held Saturday, November 12, at the Historic KiMo Theatre in downtown Albuquerque.

WMA Performing Member Jeneve Rose Mitchell was named 2016 WMA Crescendo Award winner.

The WMA Awards are an opportunity for the Association to recognize those members who have shown the greatest competence in recordings or concerts and in taking the genre of Western Music and Poetry to the public.

The Western Music Association is an organization that encourages and supports the preservation, performance and composition of historic, traditional and contemporary music and poetry of The American West. WMA was founded in 1989.
